In Colossians 1:26 St. Paul spoke of the ancient mystery of a Christ for all the world; then of the new, perpetual mystery of a Christ dwelling within believing hearts. But this second mystery is equally that of our life in Christ as of Christ's life in us, lifting us to heaven while it brings him down to earth.

Church in Mission | "CHRIST OUR LIFE" Col. 3:4

"Christ who is our life," (Col 3:4). Not only brings, or gives, but "is," in Himself. (1) Its Entrance - "He that hath the Son hath [the] life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not [the] life," 1Jn 5:12. This latter has a physical life; but he has not "the" (Gk.) life, the spiritual life. He is our life.

Christ Our Life - Welcome to the Frontpage!

It is life in our relationship with God, consequent to the knowledge of salvation by the remission of our sins, through faith in Jesus Christ. It is the resurrected life of Christ in us, and the Spirit given to us as the power of that life. This is the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:2). The knowledge of this law is the only thing that sets the Christian free from the law of sin and death, that is, being set free from its dominion and power.

This updated second edition of the Catechism of the Catholic Church incorporates all the final modifications made in the complete, official Latin text, accompanied by line-by-line explanations of orthodox Catholicism, summaries of each section, a detailed index, extensive cross-references, and helpful footnotes.

Introduces young readers to Catholic beliefs as expressed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Christ is the portion of the believers. "There is nothing as vital or as basic to our Christian life and to the church life as the real, practical enjoyment of Christ. This enjoyment is not Christ in doctrine or in knowledge, but Christ in life, in the Spirit, and in reality. He is a living Person for us to deal with."

To young Christians of the world, Pope Francis has a message for you: "Christ is alive, and he wants you to be alive!" In his fourth apostolic exhortation, Christus Vivit, Pope Francis encapsulates the work of the 2018 synod of bishops on "Young People, The Faith, and Vocational Discernment." Pope Francis has always had a special relationship with young people, and in his fatherly love for you he shows that: You can relate to young people in Scripture who made a difference You identify with the Christ who is always young You face difficult issues in the world today You yearn for the truth of the Gospel You are capable of amazing things when you respond to the Gospel You learn and grow with help from the faithful of all generations You need bold and creative youth ministry You can discover who God made you to be You are urged to pray for discernment Christus Vivit is written for and to young people, but Pope Francis also wrote it for the entire Church, because, as he says, reflecting on our young people inspires us all. "May the Holy Spirit urge you on as you run this race. The Church needs your momentum, your intuitions, your faith. We need them! And when you arrive where we have not yet reached, have the patience to wait for us."

This document's purpose is to spell out the Church's understanding of the nature of revelation--the process whereby God communicates with human beings. It touches upon questions about Scripture, tradition, and the teaching authority of the Church. The major concern of the document is to proclaim a Catholic understanding of the Bible as the "word of God." Key elements include: Trinitarian structure, roles of apostles and bishops, and biblical reading in a historical context.
